BRITISH CAPTURE MAUBEUGE FORT

ONE OF STRONGEST POINTS ALONG FRENCH-BELGIAN FRONTIER IS TAKEN BY GENERAL HAIG'S FORCES—FRENCH ARE ADVANCING RAPIDLY NORTHWARD TO BORDER

London, Nov. 9.—The British forces have captured the fortress of Maubeuge, Field Marshal Haig announces today.

South of Maubeuge the British are pushing eastward and are well beyond the Avesnes-Maubeuge road.

British troops in Flanders have crossed the river Scheldt on a wide front north of Tournai and have established themselves on the east bank, according to Field Marshal Haig's announcement.

The capture of Avesnes, another large town of military importance, directly south of Maubeuge, was announced last night.

Maubeuge was the last important French fortress in the hands of the Germans. Before the war it was considered a fortress of the first-class and guarded the Namur-Charleroi route into France by the way of the Sambre river. The town is situated on both banks of the Sambre and was founded in the seventh century. Several famous battlefields of French wars prior to 1800 are in close proximity to Maubeuge.

Maubeuge was taken by the Germans after heavy fighting with the British and French late in August, 1914. The town is within a few miles of the Belgian border, south of Mons, which is 13 miles northward by rail. Namur is about 40 miles east-northeast of Maubeuge and Charleroi is about midway between the two.

YANKEE ADVANCE NOT HALTED

With the American Army on the Sedan Front, Nov. 9.—The American army, east of the Meuse, continued to advance today despite strong machine-gun resistance. The Americans went ahead in this region, both north and south of Damvillers.

Along the line of the Meuse the front from Sassey to Wadelincourt last night was marked by artillery and machine-gun fighting.

GERMANS SURRENDER EASILY

With the American Army on the Sedan Front, Nov. 9.—"What is the use of staying out there to be killed on the last day?" was the comment of scores of prisoners brought in yesterday by the Americans. The captured Germans were a more discouraged lot than usual.

Most of them declared that since their government is quitting—and they appear to be convinced that it is—it was absurd for them to neglect the opportunity to surrender.

YANKS CAPTURE MEUSE HEIGHTS

Washington, Nov. 9.—Wrestling from the enemy his last hold on the heights east of the Meuse, is reported by General Pershing in his Friday evening communique.

Large captures of munitions are noted. American aviators carried out bombing and machine-gun attacks behind the German lines. Four enemy balloons and three airplanes were destroyed. One American machine is missing.

SERBS BACK WHERE WAR STARTED

Saloniki, Nov. 9.—Allied troops have entered Sarajevo, in Bosnia, according to an official statement today by the French headquarters here. It was at Sarajevo that Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria, was assassinated, just prior to the outbreak of the great war.

YANKEE TRUCKS BURN LIGHTS

With the American Army on Sedan Front, Nov. 9.—American army trucks moved about last night in the zone just behind the front line with their headlights burning. Because of the low visibility, officers believed that the enemy hardly could see the lights and if they did see one, now and then, it would not be of any great assistance.

The fact that Germany had sent armistice delegates within the allied lines has not slowed up the American operations. From the heights, east of Dun-Sur-Meuse to Sedan, the same dash that has characterized their work since the beginning of the offensive animated the American troops in their operations yesterday and today.

GERMAN UPRISING SPREADS; HANOVER JOINS REVOLUTION

Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—The uprising in northwestern Germany, according to the only direct news from Germany early today, is reported to have spread to Hanover, Hildesburg, and other cities. Generally the revolt is not attended by serious disturbances.

Reports from the Danish border town of Vandrup says that all is quiet in Schleswig, but that further disturbances are reported to have occurred in Hamburg.

Four thousand men attempted to overthrow the military authorities in Altona, across the Elbe from Hamburg, but the city now is quiet. The German guards at the Danish border have been ordered by the soldiers' councils to remain at their posts temporarily.

Travelers arriving from Germany report that the disaffection apparently is confined to the Ninth army corps which was recruited in Schleswig-Holstein.

Official Announcement Is Made In Berlin

PARIS, Nov. 9--(6:15 p. m.) --- The abdication of Emperor William is officially announced from Berlin, according to a Havas dispatch from Basel.

BOARD OF HEALTH LIFTS BAN ON NEWARK'S CHURCHES AND CLUBS

Sunday Schools Remain Closed Under Ruling Classing Them With Public Schools, Theatres; Public and Parochial Schools Will Open Monday.

Churches and clubs were released from the quarantine restrictions on Sunday, November 10, and the theaters and other places of business will be released on Monday. This was agreed upon by the members of the board of health at a meeting held Friday evening.

The board resolved that the closing order of October 11 be TEMPORARILY rescinded to the following extent, subject, however, to a recess; churches and clubs may open Sunday, November 10, and the other businesses affected by the order may open Monday, November 11.

All these open on the condition that windows and doors be kept open and the proper ventilation be watched, and that theaters and picture shows serve only seating capacity.

Health Officer Knauss ruled that Sunday schools were to be regarded as schools and that they would not open until Monday.

The churches will have services at the regular hour, excepting the Sunday school.

Health Officer Knauss stated that conditions were not yet back to normal and that the continuance of the lifting of the ban depended upon the citizens.

WORK ON SUNDAY IS STOPPED IN U. S. NAVY YARDS

Washington, Nov. 9.—The navy department today issued an order discontinuing until further notice all Sunday work in navy yards and other shore stations of the navy. The order becomes effective tomorrow.

Secretary Daniels said the action was taken to save the men from the strain of a seven-day week now that production in most establishments is exceeding requirements. He added that if increased production became necessary the order would be countermanded.

The Camp Grant football special consisted of 15 coaches crowded with 1,200 soldiers and the Camp Grant team. The football special had the right of way, the westbound passenger having been given orders to make the siding at Sugar Grove and wait for the special. This, according to army men, it did not do, the two trains meeting head-on just before the siding.

STOP PLACING GUNS ON BOARD VESSELS

Quebec, Nov. 9.—Instructions from Ottawa to stop the work of fitting guns on board ships and also to stop the providing of quarters on board some vessels for gunner crews, have been received by the local representatives of the Imperial munitions board engaged in supervising the fitting and machinery installation of wooden steamers being built here.

Members of the committee in charge of the game announced. Members of the Camp Grant football eleven were not on the train, he said, the players having reached Chicago last night.

EXPECT COURIER TO RETURN WITH ANSWER

Paris, Nov. 9.—(4:20 a. m.)—It is probable that the German reply to the allied terms for an armistice will be brought back by the same courier that took them to German headquarters at Spa yesterday. Under the circumstances it is believed the reply cannot be delivered before the middle of this afternoon at the very earliest.

The German government, however, may use the wireless in which case the plenipotentiaries at Marshal Foch's headquarters will have only to ratify the decision thus conveyed to them.

Paris, Nov. 9.—(4:10 a. m.)—Vice Admiral William S. Simms, commander of the American naval forces in the war zone, was present at the first interview between Marshal Foch and the German armistice mission yesterday.

It was learned during the morning that Admiral Simms is not taking part in the negotiations but has gone to London.

General March Deplores Loss of Time Caused by False Report

OHIO DIVISION FIGHTS ON FLANDERS BATTLE FRONT

Buckeye State Troops Help Drive Foe From Belgium

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Nov. 9.—Capture of Maubeuge by the British, General March said today, marks the definite severance of the last German artery to that sector of the west front and will make it impossible for the enemy to shift his forces to meet a new attack.

Summarizing the allied successes since the inauguration of the forward movement, General March pointed out that the Germans have been driven 64 miles further from Paris and the territory they occupied in France has reduced from 10,000 square miles to less than 2,500.

American divisions operating with the British in Flanders were identified as the 37th Ohio under Major General C. S. Farnsworth, and the 51st (Pacific Coast, Alaska, Wyoming, Montana, Nevada and Utah) under Major W. H. Johnson. The 91st was, on last reports on the heights of Ardenne, on the Scheldt river.

The American First army under General Pershing has advanced 30 miles in the last eight days.

General March characterized the publication of the erroneous announcement of the armistice as "VERY BAD FOR THE MILITARY PROGRAM OF THE UNITED STATES."

For instance, he said, in New York the stevedores who were engaged in loading very essential supplies for the expeditionary forces stopped work and did not return at all that day or the next day, and army food shipments was thus delayed.

In commenting on this incident the chief of staff made the statement that the American army would be in France for some time even when peace is declared.

In reply to questions concerning individual units the chief of staff announced that the 351st aerodrome squadron was at an artillery observing school in France, the 346th Machine gun battalion was attached to the 91st division in Flanders, the 303rd field artillery brigade was at Clermont sur Albis at last reports, the 264th field artillery brigade, originally with the 89th division, has been in action in Flanders, the 41st division (Pacific, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming) still is acting as a replacement unit and the 39th division (Kentucky and West Virginia) has not been reported since October 23 when it was in action west of the Meuse.

ENEMY HIGH COMMAND HAS UNTIL MONDAY TO SIGN ARMISTICE OR REJECT TERMS OF ALLIED WAR COUNCIL

REPLY MAY COME ANY MOMENT PARIS BELIEVES; EXPECT ACCEPTANCE

Internal Conditions in Germany Coupled With Military Reverses In Last Few Days Expected to Compel Foe to Give Up

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Nov. 9.—So far as the American government was advised late today no word has been received by Marshal Foch from the German high command since the courier of the armistice envoys started back through the battle lines last night with the surrender terms and the ultimatum for their acceptance by 11 o'clock Monday morning.

MEET GERMAN ENVOYS IN RAILROAD CARS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Nov. 9.—(5 a. m.)—Germany's armistice delegates were received by Marshal Foch yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in a railroad car in which the commander-in-chief of the allied forces has his headquarters, according to the Petit Journal. When the Germans' credentials had been opened and verified, Matthias Erzberger, leader of the enemy delegation, speaking in French, announced that the German government had been advised by President Wilson that Marshal Foch was qualified to communicate to them the allies' conditions and had appointed them plenipotentiaries to take cognizance of the terms and, eventually, sign an armistice.

Marshal Foch then made the terms in a loud voice dwelling upon each word. The Germans were prepared by semi-official communications for the stipulations, as a whole, but hearing set forth in detail the concrete demands seemed to bring to them for the first time the full realization of the extent of the German defeat. They made a few observations, merely pointing out some difficulties standing in the way of carrying out some quite secondary clauses. Then Erzberger asked for a suspension of hostilities in the interest of humanity. This request Marshal Foch flatly refused.

The delegates having obtained permission to send a courier to Spa and communicate with that place by wireless, withdrew. Marshal Foch immediately wrote an account of the proceedings and sent them by an aide to Premier Clemenceau, who received them at noon.

The German delegates are lodged in a country mansion at Rethondes, six miles east of Compiègne, and 30 miles from Marshal Foch's headquarters.

With the commander-in-chief at the time of the interview were Major General Maxime Weygand, his assistant, Vice Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, first lord of the British admiralty, and Vice Admiral William S. Simms, American representative.

Rethondes, where the German armistice delegates are living, is a small town on the north bank of the river

Alsace, six miles east of Compiègne, is between the forests of Laigle and Rethondes are the railroad towns of Charbonnet, Montdidier, La Fere, Launoy and several others not as well known. The Marne. Later it was the French headquarters in the operations after the battle of the Marne.

When the Germans drove southward from Noyon last June they reached Compiègne before they were driven back. The French withdrew their lines north of the Aisne in the region of Compiègne and the Germans at one time were within five miles of the city. They say the German lines are 65 miles away.

While Germany is reflecting on the allies' terms, Marshal Foch continues his blows without intermission. The German army may break at any moment. There were signs of a new retreat from the Scheldt yesterday and the French are along the Meuse over a front rank of 16 miles. The alternative for Germany now is armistice or invasion—not evasion.

EXPECT HUNS TO QUIT NOT LATER THAN MON.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Nov. 9.—(5:45 a. m.)—Germany will capitulate between now and Monday.

French opinion, which is remarkably restrained and conservative, is unanimous in this view. There is no tendency to exaggerate happenings in Germany, but it is felt that the Germans have had enough to make it imperative for the government to make peace at the earliest possible moment.

M. Coplan, writing in the Figaro, fairly sums up the views of all editorial writers when he says:

"The details of revolutionary movements in Germany are lacking but we learn enough from hour to hour to feel already that they are neither superficial or fictitious. Do they contain deep-seated revolution? Are they but riots due to the reaction of the defeat? What authority does the republic proclaim at Munich possess? These are questions which concern Germany alone."

While Germany is reflecting on the allies' terms, Marshal Foch continues his blows without intermission. The German army may break at any moment. There were signs of a new retreat from the Scheldt yesterday and the French are along the Meuse over a front rank of 16 miles. The alternative for Germany now is armistice or invasion—not evasion.

LESSONS OF THE INFLUENZA

It is now generally realized that the epidemic of Spanish influenza is one of the most serious calamities that ever befell this country. We had been boasting of how our soldiers were not going to suffer from disease as in earlier wars. We had learned better how to care for them. But it is now being discovered that it is not only the soldiers who are suffering, but also the civilians. It is estimated that 100,000 deaths will be caused by this epidemic.

Some medical authorities think this fatal result could not have been helped, since the beginnings of the disease can not be distinguished from a common cold.

However, a great many people have been very careless. The story is told of one woman who was out on her porch one day talking with her neighbors. "Don't come near me," she said, "or I will give you this awful cold I've got. But I'm going out on a nice long ride this afternoon that will break it up." She did go out on the ride, but after she got home she had a severe chill, and in a few days she was dead.

The management of one large factory in a town where the disease has prevailed, showed how it can be handled. The owners were no doubt moved both by generosity to their help, and by the feeling that it was poor business to let the disease get a start. They provided doctors and nurses, and when one of their employees got the influenza, they sent him right home, and had a doctor and nurse call. The same thing was done when members of the families of the help were taken sick. As a result, not one death was reported in all the 2,000 families connected with that mill. If that policy could be followed everywhere, the influenza would not be very fatal.

THE LABOR SHORTAGE.

Different places are getting a good deal different results in the matter of supplying the shortage of labor in farming and war industries. In some places it is more or less haphazard, and there is no general co-operation. Employers bid against each other, employees drift from one shop to another in search of higher wages. A large number of new men have to be broken in all the time and a force never gets down to a working basis.

The situation is terribly serious, because of the need of men for war munitions is not being met. The War Department has projected an enormous amount of material to carry it out. If we can have plenty of shells, we can blast our way next year to Berlin. Otherwise not. Whatever we fall short in material will have to be made up with the bodies of our young men.

In the little state of Delaware they have had unusual success in handling the labor problem through Community Labor Boards. These are working harmoniously to draw labor from the less essential industries and put it where it is most needed.

The first day that the first of these boards got to work, it issued notices to 150 workers employed in the less essential industries. Within 24 hours after they were mailed, 60 of these workers called at the employment office, and were assigned to essential war work where their work was badly needed.

Thirty-five of the journeymen barbers in Wilmington, Del., were called on to enter essential industries, and everyone of them has responded.

If the government could get that kind of co-operation everywhere we would not hear much more of scarcity of labor or of inability of the munition plants, farms, and other productive agencies to do what it expected of them.

PRACTICAL EDUCATION.

The great fault with old fashioned education has been that it was too much work. The young people have been required to follow traditional lines of thought laid out in past ages. They have become mentally alert, good reasoners, agile in argument.

But there has been a failure to develop the planning, construction, active faculties. The children have been too much spectators in the world of action learning what other people have done before them, but not doing things for themselves. Their mental eyes were opened, but their physical eyes closed. They acquired no faculties of observation.

It has often happened that boys brought up in the rough and tumble of work, without much schooling, have succeeded better than well educated men. The uneducated man learning in his experience how to keep his eyes open. He closely observed all details in whatever material he handled. He studied the people he came in contact with, and had a pretty good idea what they would do under any circumstances. Put him out in some difficult situation in actual life, and all this practical experience counted, and he could originate some way to handle it. Book work does not solve many of these problems.

During recent years, feeling that education must somehow give these powers not taught in old fashioned book work, educators have introduced manual training in various kinds of hand work. Excellent results are being accomplished where the work is well handled.

Children who never could be interested in books, who learned from the printed page only with the greatest difficulty, have had a new world of interest opened to them. The faculties with which they were gifted have been aroused. They have been put in the way of making successful men and women.

A friend asks what should be done with anyone who believes the Huns will voluntarily keep the promises they make in the Peace treaty? Well, good judges are divided whether they should be confined in a home for the feeble minded, or be allowed at large with guardians appointed over their property.

Millions has been spent to prevent the railroad accidents that kill a few hundred passengers every year, but no one ever thought to do anything to prevent the influenza from carrying off 100,000 people.

No, Mr. Kaiser Bill, Uncle Sam may look like a Reuben, but he has been to town once or twice, and he knows those slick looking fellows that always walk up and inquire for the home folks.

It is hoped that next time an epidemic starts, some one will know the difference between a common cold and a disease that carries off 20,000 soldiers and 100,000 civilians.

It is amazing how the kids will take hold clean-up day, if you announce that the rubbish will be burned in a bonfire containing two or three roast potatoes.

Although scientists claim there has been no appreciable change in the climate of Europe in 1800 years, the Germans say it is growing hotter in France.

The men of Newark pledge their enthusiastic support to the canning and preserving movement, but their assistance so far consists merely in eating the product.

It has not been observed that the prosperous business man who bought a $50 Liberty bond displays his button any less conspicuously than anyone else.

Before the Huns get peace, they may conclude it is the best to make some effort to pass as human beings.

A noted clergyman says kissing is a relic of the dark ages. Anyway it is apt to take place in the dark.

GERMANY'S GOVERNMENT

Germany claims to have democratized its government. If so, one of the greatest revolutions of history has taken place over night. The mightiest despotism the world ever saw, suddenly disappears. In its place we have a Democratic monarchy, conforming to President Wilson's demands. It takes a shell game artist at county fairs to do anything so neat.

Great revolutions like these, if authentic, are attested by indisputable evidence. Any constitutional change in the United States is the subject of long debates in public assembly, and is finally agreed to by vote attested and put on record by the lawful authorities. English liberties date back to Magna Charter. You can find an original copy of it in Lincoln cathedral today.

When has any proclamation of abdication of his imperial power been made by Emperor William II of Germany? Under the German constitution, he has the power of making "defensive war." As he can set up the claim that any war is "defensive," this practically gives him the right to make war any time he wants to. Where and when has he abdicated this power? Let him come forward and present a signed proclamation giving up the right.

Under the German constitution, the Federal council can authorize the Kaiser to make an "offensive war." As this body does not represent the people, the council must formally by attested vote renounce this right, before the first step toward democratization has been made.

The claim set forth by the German government that it has placed sovereign power in the hands of the people is too transparent to deceive a class of school children.

The question is asked what has become of the spellbinders that used to tear through the country in automobiles asking little knots of people to vote for them. Well, last heard from they had saved time and money and reached 10 times as many people, by paying the newspapers to print what they had to say.

While the farmer is quietly reading in his house of the activities of the Hun spies 1,000 miles away, the Kaisers may be creeping up behind his own grain stack with a torch.

The employers who complain so much about not being able to get any help, are sometimes the same ones who wouldn't take the bother to put a little want ad in the paper.

Some of the business men celebrate Fire Prevention Day annually by cleaning up their stores and stuffing the inflammable material out of sight in the basement.

They are now curing insane people by taking out their teeth and removing their tonsils, but so far no one has cured anyone of brain fever by amputating their big toe.

While the prisoners are twiddling their thumbs in the cells of many jails, the highways are going to pieces because no help can be secured to repair them.

American farmers report twice as many hogs as there were a year ago. Also you see a large number when you get out on the crowded motor roads.

The reason why some men haven't gone to France is that they feel they are needed so badly in this country to criticize what other people are doing.

In regard to Germany's alleged new Democratic constitution, it is well to remember that things made in a week usually last about that length of time.

The man who forgot to vote is usually the same one who howls the loudest when public officials forget to protect his interest in every detail.

Of course the farmers still claim farming doesn't pay, but it is noticed that the automobile dealers spend a lot of time drumming their trade.

A Towanda, Penn., man choked to death while eating meat pie. That is a danger to which many of us are not subject at present prices.

Will some one who thinks advertisement doesn't pay, please explain why it is that the biggest businesses are always the best advertisers.

The German people pitiously plead to their rulers to tell them some better lies that will keep them comfortable a little longer.

So far as observed the fear of influenza germs doesn't lead the boys to hold the girls any the less tightly at the dance.

BILL FOR REPARATION.

(Philadelphia Record)

The Allies did not go into this war to make money out of it as Germany did. For years before the war German writers were speculating about the amount of money that could be extorted from France. As soon as the first gun was fired the dominant topic of conversation in Berlin was the indemnity that could be obtained from the Germans. Increase of national prosperity that was assured. And at various times during the war Germans, individually and collectively, have discussed the wealth of England, France and the United States which would be transferred to Germany.

The Allies have had no thought of making money out of the war, but wanton and groundless destruction will have to be paid for, and the proceeds of robbery will have to be disgorged. The armistice delegation which left Berlin this week for the western front knew before they left that there would be no armistice unless, among other things, Germany should undertake to make pecuniary reparation for its spoils.

The huge sums extorted from Belgian cities had not the shadow of justification in the laws of civilized warfare. They were pure plunder, and they will have to be restored. The furniture, libraries and works of art, pianos and silverware, taken from the residents of the occupied territory in both France and Belgium, will have to be paid for. The destruction of houses and orchards and forests, not incidental to military operations, but committed in execution of an avowed policy of frightfulness, will have to be indemnified.

Men and women in the occupied territory have been obliged to work as slaves to the Germans, gathering crops for them or working in munition factories in violation of the laws of war, or on fortifications under fire, in gross violation of the laws of humanity. They have had to work in the region of their own homes and in other parts of the occupied territory, and thousands of them have been sent to Germany and worked until they were shipped back to their homes or sent into the French lines, so that the Germans would not have them to feed. These people, if they have survived, must be paid for their labor, and if they have perished, their families must be indemnified.

Germany expected to get rich out of this war. It will emerge poorer than it yet realizes. It may have to repudiate its domestic debt, or defer it for many years. But it will have to make all the reparation that money can effect or the Allied armies will go to Berlin to collect the indemnities. We know how France was treated in 1871 and how Belgium has been treated for four years. Settling day has arrived.

QUAKER QUIPS.

(Philadelphia Record)

It's a pretty difficult matter to mix peace and politics. The war is over, but the peace is not yet made. The war is over, but the peace is not yet made. The war is over, but the peace is not yet made.

Neutrals' Claim For Lost Ships.

The neutral nations are beginning to prepare for the peace conference their claims against Germany for ships which U-boats have destroyed. The Norwegian government will ask the conference to consider its demand that Germany shall replace the tonnage or pay for it, with compensation also for cargoes and the lives of murdered sailors. What the peace conference will do cannot be foreseen. Because so many German merchantmen are thus under the control of neutral governments there may be an apportionment of the surrendered tonnage. Germany should be required to pay for ships which she cannot replace. The debt, like that which she owes to Belgium, is one from which there is no escape.—New York Times.

A Nation's End.

The Austro-Hungarian armistice is the final chapter of the history of Austria-Hungary. The Austro-Hungarian nation has ceased to exist. Italy's consent to an armistice is merely an act of mercy. The army without a country could have been destroyed at leisure. The Austrian armistice is granted to a nationless, rulerless, aimless rabble that was once an army. It cannot be granted to Austria-Hungary, for terms cannot be accepted by a non-existent nation. On Germany, Bulgaria and Turkey the peace congress will impose conditions of justice and reparation. For what was Austria-Hungary there must be a different treatment. It will be a difficult problem, complicated by the fact that two splendid Slavic republics have already arisen from the ruins of Hapsburgism.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Why German Music Is Banned.

Henri Rabaud, who succeeds Karl Muck, interned, as conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, when asked if he intended to include music by German composers in his concert program for the coming season, replied: "Such questions are never asked in Paris. Why should we not play beautiful music like Beethoven's C Minor Symphony?" The answer to this is simple enough: it is not necessary to play it at least for the present. Germany has used her beautiful music in the United States to cloak deceit; let her pay the price of her treachery in this as in every other particular, so that she may never commit such offenses again.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Ohio War Board Says Today

The Ohio War Board says today: The United States already has more than 2,000,000 men over seas and they are going over at the rate of 250,000 per month.

When peace comes it will be a big problem to get these men transported back. It has been estimated that this will take at least two years.

This means that we will have to keep supplies of food moving across the sea.

When actual fighting is suspended our boys over there will need, more than ever, the care and recreation which the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and other welfare agencies are providing.

We must not let down for one minute the support of these organizations.

You are asked to give to the very limit in the campaign for the United War Work fund which starts November 11.

High-Water Mark.

"High-water mark" is the line ordinarily reached by the sea at high tide. The general high-water mark of the sea is taken as the line at the limit of the rise of the medium tides and that of a body of fresh water in which there is no ebb and flow tide, is taken at the limit of the soil that is not affected by the water as to be marked with a nature and vegetation distinct from that of the banks.

Did You Know That Martin Luther was born November 9, 1483, at Eisleben? He was one of the greatest Protestant reformers of the 16th century. In 1507 he was ordained a priest and in the following year removed to Wittenberg where he became a teacher in the new university. In 1509 he was made Bachelor of Theology and commenced a series of lectures on the Scriptures which, from the novelty of his views, made a great impression. In 1511 he was sent on a mission to Rome and on his return was made a Doctor of the Holy Scriptures, and his career as a reformer began. Indignant at the shameful traffic in the sale of "indulgences," Luther drew up 95 theses which he nailed up on the gate of the church at Wittenberg, the general purport of which was to deny to the pope all right to forgive sins. He was summoned to Rome to answer for this, a papal bull was issued against him, and this document was burned at the Elster Gate of Wittenberg before an assembled multitude of doctors, students and citizens. When the Diet of Worms met early in 1521 an order was issued for the destruction of Luther's book and he was summoned before the Diet. His appearance and demeanor before the Diet and the firmness with which he refused to retract, made a striking picture. In 1533 the anniversary of his birth was celebrated in Europe and America. He died in 1546.

To Hell With the Kaiser.

"To Hell With the Kaiser," the great seven-act Screen Classic, Inc. patriotic production, will open the Auditorium Theatre Monday. "To Hell With the Kaiser" is the most vital of all the pictures dealing with the world war. It strips bare the vile soul of Wilhelm of Hohenzollern, and shows the plot by which he and his "potsdam gang" hoped to get possession not only of Europe, but of America. "To Hell With the Kaiser" shows the final destination of this mad monarch, as well as relating his cruel deeds on earth.

A great cast has been chosen to interpret this magnificent picture, which has been directed by George Irving from the scenario by June Mathis, and photographed by George K. Hollister, a war photographer and former war correspondent. George Irving also directed the Metro feature patriotic screen drama, "The Boy." Lawrence Grant plays the Kaiser, Olive Tell, a beautiful star of both stage and screen, plays the leading feminine part of Alice Monroe. Betty Howe does a wonderful bit of work as her sister, Ruth, who meets a tragic fate in a Belgian convent at the hands of the Crown Prince. Frank Currier plays Prof. Monroe, and John Sunde Lind, himself an aviator, plays Winslow Dodge, who is seen in spectacular airplane flights which have a strong bearing on the story.

"To Hell With the Kaiser" has some of the most unusual features ever seen in a photoplay. The closing scenes contain a genuine surprise, combining beauty and forcefulness, and the Kaiser is shown in those avowed regions to which his base record has destined him.

Scenes among the American soldiers in the trenches are shown, and a genuine air-battle of two opposing aerial fleets is reproduced. The paces of history are unfolded to show the deeds of Frederick III of Prussia, and the instruction of the present Kaiser in his war policy by Bismarck—then the events leading up to the present sacrifice of the flowers of nations. Romance plays its part in this amazing picture, showing that love and loyalty will outlive a thousand wars.

ALHAMBRA.

The notorious "Caillaux Case" of France has at last been put on the screen. This sensational international drama of ambition, intrigue, love and war, which for years has filled column after column in the public press, will be shown to picture-lovers of this city at the Alhambra theatre for two days, beginning Monday.

MICHIGAN IS FAVORITE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Nov. 9.—The University of Michigan football team here today for the first time in thirteen years was a strong favorite.

In renewing relations with its old time rival, Michigan mustered probably the weakest team the institution has known in a dozen years, loss of valuable material which was sent to the officers training schools at the beginning of the season, having disarranged Michigan on the other hand sent a seasoned team on the field, every man having had preparatory experience.

First, forcing any American prisoners of war to work while ill or physically unable to do so.

Second, compelling any American prisoners of war to labor in mines.

Third, compelling any American civilian prisoners to perform any work of any kind save such as may be necessary in connection with their own care and upkeep or in connection with the care and upkeep of their own quarters.

NOBLEMEN THROWN FROM AUSTRIAN TRAIN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Zurich, Nov. 9.—(9:20 a. m.)—Deplorable conditions in Austria are described by a traveler of prominence who has arrived here from Vienna. Along the road the train was invaded by crowds. Places in the coaches were taken by Count Leopold von Berchthold, former foreign minister of Austria-Hungary, and the Prince of Schoenburg, were taken and the noblemen were rejected. Bands of disorderly soldiers installed themselves upon the roofs of the cars.

Stores in villages along the way have been pillaged and foodstuffs have been carried off. The traveler confirms reports that anarchy reigns in the interior of Austria-Hungary. Farms are being pillaged and shops sacked by throngs of deserting soldiers. The bourgeoisie, fearing the Bolshevik movement, desires allied intervention, he says.

TAXATION QUESTION IS OHIO'S NEXT PROBLEM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 9.—Taxation probably will be the principal question facing the next general assembly as a result of Tuesday's election.

As a result of the adoption of prohibition amendment, $7,000,000 of loan revenue is cut off, and with the adoption of both the classification of property and mortgage exemption amendments, modification of the existing tax laws is made necessary. Cities and schools are both calling for financial relief, and the Smith one per cent tax law still upon the statute books. The revenue question will, therefore, probably be the dominating one before the solons when they meet next January.

The mortgage taxation amendment was passed by a majority that is expected to reach nearly 60,000, while that concerning the classification of property for the classification of property will probably be around 25,000.

The next legislature also will be called upon to enact law enforcement legislation to make workable statewide prohibition.

HEAVY BARRAGE FIRE SEPARATES BROTHERS IN SOISSONS BATTLE

Harry Johns, Second Wounded Hero in Same Family Joins Comrade on Furlough Here—Both Are Wounded in Same Battle.

Through all the horrors, sacrifices and privations of the worst battles of the most terrible war in the world's history two brothers have returned from France to their home in Newark. With the arrival in Newark yesterday of Harry P. Johns from a hospital at Plymouth, England, an unusual incident was brought to a climax.

Two brothers—Harry P. Johns and William Johns—sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Johns of West Main street, left Newark in June, 1917. They went to Columbus where they enlisted in the marines. At Paris Island they were both sworn in the same day—June 16. They completed their training and sailed for France with the 4th company, 6th Regiment of marines.

They landed at Brest and side by side fought through the Verdun trenches, the horrors of Belleau woods and the misery of Chateau Thierry. At the battle of Soissons both fell wounded on July 18, and both suffered serious wounds, each in the left arm.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PEACE PLANS DO NOT HALT FIGHT

Allied Armies About to Drive Hun Hordes From French Soil—Line is Uncertain.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)

Germany's answer to the allied terms for an armistice is not expected to reach Marshal Foch's headquarters until the middle of this (Saturday) afternoon at the very earliest.

The courier left for Spa, the German headquarters, immediately after the terms were delivered and the enemy had been given 72-hours in which to send his answer.

Few details of the terms have been divulged, nor have any of the dramatic elements of the scene at the allied commander-in-chief's headquarters been reported. Nothing but the briefest dispatches have told of an event the consequences of which will affect the whole subsequent history of civilization.

In the meantime the allied armies are grimly sticking to their task of driving the foe from the soil of France. No one can exactly locate the line where the contending armies are fighting today. It is known, however, that the French have reached Mezieres and that the British have captured Avesnes. It is probable that the Germans now hold a strip of French soil not over six or seven miles in width from east of Valenciennes to the bank of the Moselle river. Further south the line runs along the frontier, but is nowhere more than a couple of miles west of Germany's domain.

The fact and the obvious ability of the allied armies to complete their triumph over the enemy may bring about a quick decision by the military chiefs of Germany. Emperor William at Spa, it is said, is in a council room possible that the armistice mission now at Marshal Foch's headquarters may receive instructions by wireless.

Bavaria has been declared a republic and the Whitebach dynasty, headed by King Ludwig III, is deposed. Emperor William's abdication has been demanded by the socialists, but has been met with refusal from the emperor, who fears to quit office at such a critical juncture in the history of Germany.

The revolution is seemingly rapidly spreading through the great industrial and maritime cities of Prussia, Essen, the site of the great Krupp munition works, being the latest place reported to be disaffected.

Prince Henry of Prussia, the emperor's brother, who visited America in 1902, has fled from Kiel under fire from mutinous sailors.

Prince Max of Baden, the German chancellor, is reported to have resigned, but there has been no acceptance of his resignation. Prince Max, it is indicated today will continue to head the government until a committee of Reichstag party leaders. Virtually all the North sea coast and part of the Baltic littoral is now in the hands of the revolutionaries.

Not only has the German army been crushed in the maw of war but the whole structure of the German empire seems about to be engulfed.

Conditions in Austria are apparently in a wild chaotic condition. Little definite information as to conditions there has been received during the past couple of days.

SOLDIER DIES ON SHIP ENROUTE TO FRANCE

Corporal Charles W. Beecher of Marlborough, a grandson of James Willoughby of Ourlville, died on a transport en route to France, October 9, according to word received by Willoughby. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zina Beecher, and besides his parents he is survived by his widow who is at present with her mother in Peoria.

Corporal Beecher enlisted in June and took special training in Cincinnati and was soon transferred to Camp Forrest, Ga., and later to Camp Upton, Long Island, from which place he sailed about September 29. He was a member of a company of engineers.

In a letter to the widow, Chaplain P. P. Bloomhardt, navy chaplain on the U. S. S. George Washington, wrote the widow as follows:

"It is my sad duty to communicate to you the circumstances of the death of your husband. He with his comrades embarked on our ship at a time when Spanish influenza was so widely prevalent in the camp at home. It was inevitable that some should suffer from it after we had left port. Among these was your husband and in his case pneumonia developed. His condition became worse until death resulted at 7:40 p. m. on October 9.

"Because of the attending fever his last hours were spent in unconsciousness and I have no message from him to convey to you.

"Upon our arrival at the French port his body was removed for burial on land. The exact place will probably be made known to you in due course of time. His personal effects will be forwarded to you in the near future.

"It may be some consolation to you to understand that his death occurred in the line of duty and that he had already come in contact with the enemy zone in which submarines were operating."

LABOR BOARD URGES EMPLOYERS TO HELP

Cordial and prompt co-operation from every employer in Newark is asked by the Newark Community Labor board in a statement issued today. Employers are asked to fill out and return promptly the questionnaires which are being mailed out.

"The board," said C. H. Stull, chairman, "is now getting out the questionnaires to practically all employers of labor. It is mandatory that these questionnaires be returned to the Federal Community Labor board. In case there is a lack of co-operation Newark is liable to have a very rude awakening, in our getting an order here to furnish a large number of skilled men, tool men, carpenters and common laborers, which we do not want to incur. The Federal Community Labor board is to list all the industries according to their rank either in the essential or non-essential classes, seeing to it that the skilled and common labor in the community is fully and justly employed in essential war-work."

Indian Superstition.

A student of Indian customs relates that among the Seneca tribes was one remarkable for its beauty. When a maiden died the Indians imprisoned a young bird until it first began to try its powers of song, and then loading it with messages and caresses they loosed its bonds over her grave in the belief that it would not fold its wings nor close its eyes until it had flown to the spirit land and delivered its burden of affection.

TRAINED NURSE TELLS OF TREATMENT FOR INFLUENZA

Gentlemen—For the benefit of thousands who are suffering with La Grippe or Influenza I feel it my duty to tell others about your wonderful remedy Hull's Superlative Compound. It was through this remedy that I became interested in medicine and nursing and 12 years ago entered the City Hospital at Indianapolis, Ind., from which I graduated and became a registered nurse of Indiana. I believe Hull's Superlative to be the most efficient all-around Family Medicine on the market as it has never failed in families to whom I have recommended it. It breaks up Colds, La Grippe, Tonsillitis, Influenza, Bilious fever acute indigestion, and I find it also to be a splendid blood builder. Every family should have it. Hull's Superlative is especially needed in the home and beginning to take it on the first symptoms of chills it will ward off the severest part of the disease. I received the best results from Hull's Superlative by taking 1-2 teaspoonful every two hours for five days following with from 1 to 2 tablespoonful of castor oil or eppom salts, then continuing the medicine by taking from 6 to 8 drops 3 times a day. The patient goes into a heavy perspiration and should be kept under cover not allowing the draft to reach them, although plenty of fresh air in the room. I must say I never thought I would rely on the idea of having my name used for advertising. Hull's Superlative is a great help. I wish I could tell thousands of mothers of the merit of this wonderful medicine.

Yours very sincerely,

MRS. J. H. DIXON, R. N., 401 Middle St., Dayton, O.

Hull's Superlative is a root and bark remedy, rich in Peruvian Bark, fever breaker, Golden Seal and other known vegetable antiseptics and other ingredients as good as those mentioned. Hundreds testify to great good received. Be sure and keep it in the house. Hull's Superlative comes almost at once without waiting. When is when you need Hull's Superlative.

FULTON IS 14,405 BEHIND OPPONENT

Precedent in Judson Harmon's Campaign May Save Position for Newark Man in State Office.

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Returns from 62 counties out of 88 give W. D. Fulton for secretary of state 845,215, Judge Smith of Zanesville, 359,690.

The constitution comes up again in the provision of the law that may put Judge Smith out of his claim on the office of Secretary of State. The friends of Judge Smith say that the provision of law which says that votes cast for a judicial officer, save for another judicial position, shall be unconstitutional because in more general terms than the constitution. They also contend that it has reference only to Judges of the Court of Appeals.

Against them however is the precedent in the case of Judge David L. Rockwell of Portage county. When he was a candidate for lieutenant governor with Judson Harmon in 1908 Harmon looked into the legal phases and advised him to resign. Rockwell did resign. If the statute is to be declared unconstitutional, the six Judges of the Supreme court must concur. Again, it is asserted that Judge Smith knew the law and in continuing as a candidate defied it. Whether he did upon his own legal construction and other legal advice or whether he did not expect to attain a majority is not known.

Statement of Mrs. J. Groce, 719 Walnut street, Nelsonville, O.; 66 years of age.

"I feel I owe my life to Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation. I doctored with several doctors, who claimed that the nerve system of my stomach had broken down, and for several months I was unable to leave my room. I could eat no solid foods, lived on beef tea and water off of burnt bread. The gas on my stomach would cause spells of belching that would last an hour and everything soured on my stomach. I was given up to die by my family and friends, when a friend recommended Dr. Parker's treatment. One box gave me great relief and three boxes cured me. I can now eat solid food and am doing all my own work.

Dr. Parker's Treatment has certainly done wonders for me."

I know my treatment will do for you, who suffer with indigestion and constipation. Just what it did for Mrs. Groce. It is the result of thirty-five years study, practice and experience and I know it to be the best medicine ever prepared.

Your 3 back if it does not help you. GEO. B. PARKER, M. D., Athens, O.
